

Wee Reader

Follow along and help me read this story. Remember this picture  means recycle.

I am a Wee Recycler, my name is Sue.

I live with my

Mom,

Dad ,

and brother

Lou.

The

sun

comes up, we get out of bed.

We wash our hands

and to the kitchen

we head. We go to the table and take a seat.

Bananas

and

milk

are what we eat.

The milk

bottle

is empty – what to do?

“ it,” says brother

Lou.

What is it made of?

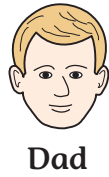

Do you know?

Into the

recycle

box it can go.

Dad

comes in, he looks very hungry.

He eats an

orange,

toasted

bread

and jelly.

The jelly

jar

is empty – what to do?

Recycle

“ it,” says brother

Lou.

What is it made of?

Do you know?

Into the

recycle

box

it can go.

It's time to feed our pet

dog,

Sam.

I scoop his food from a tin

can.

The

can

is now empty – what to do?

Recycle

“ it,” says brother

Lou.

What is it made of?

Do

you know?

Into the

recycle

box it can go.

We get a

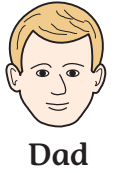

newspaper

every day,

Mom

and

Dad

never throw them away.

They're piling up quickly – what to do?

Recycle

“ them,” says brother

Lou.

What are they made of?

Do you know?

Into the

recycle

box they can go.

When

Lou

is thirsty, he drinks a

can

of pop.

He gulps it all down, doesn't leave a drop.

The

can

is

now empty – what to do?

Recycle

“ it,” says brother

Lou.

What is it made of?

Do you know?

Into the

recycle

box it can go.

Recycling is easy, recycling is fun.

It saves the earth

for everyone.

If you want to be helpful, then listen to

Lou.

Recycle,

recycle,

that's what to do!
